

Proclamation

by

Matthew G. Bevin
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, Last year, 1,007 crashes and 232 injuries occurred last year in Kentucky; and

WHEREAS, In a typical five-day work week, an average of seven motorists and one worker are killed around the nation in work zones; and

WHEREAS, Safer driving behaviors such as obeying posted speed limits, wearing seatbelts and remaining alert could dramatically reduce the number of traffic-related injuries and deaths in work zones; and

WHEREAS, Since 1999, nearly every state across the country has implemented work zone safety and awareness campaigns; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky continues to inform and educate individuals about the importance of work zone safety through partnerships between the public and industry leaders;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MATTHEW G. BEVIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim the month of April 9-13, 2018, as

WORK ZONE SAFETY WEEK

in Kentucky.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort this 16th day of March, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Eighteen and in the 226th year of the Commonwealth.
